

The Team

One of the key strengths of Ann Noble Architects lies in the immense scope and depth of experience of the practice team.

The principal team members have over 150 years of combined experience in architecture and health facility planning. This multi-faceted capability informs our understanding of health service planning and good health building design - appropriateness, aesthetics, and functional suitability.

You can view each team member's experience by clicking on their picture right.

Ann Noble

Roger Dixon

Adrian Shatford

Jimena Castro

Maire Dalton

Jon Allen